THE JACK NICKLAUS SUITE

There are boardrooms, and then there's our Jack Nicklaus boardroom. Designed with the same care and attention to detail as our eponymous golf course, the Jack Nicklaus Boardroom sits atop the arch into Hunter's Yard, with floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking the estate. A bespoke boardroom with a feature wooden table and atmospheric loft beams, this contemporary room is a smart and welcoming venue for C Suite and director-level meetings of up to 16 delegates. Executive chairs, natural windows, blackout blinds and state-of-the-art technology ensure this impressive boardroom allows you to stay focused on the business at hand.

THE JINKS SUITE

Looking out onto Hunter's Yard, the Jinks Suite is a striking contemporary space with wooden beams, feature lighting and blackout blinds. Spacious and versatile, this stylish room can be laid out for presentations, meetings, team building or intimate private dining, holding between 35 and 82 guests.

THE RED PARK SUITE

Make a statement by hosting your next off-site meeting in the elegant Red Park Suite. A contemporary room with smart wooden beams and a sloped loft ceiling, it's an impressive open plan venue for your next event. Ideal for meetings, The Red Park Suite is also the perfect choice for private dining, music, performances and entertainment. Comfortable and luxurious, with state-of-the-art technology and blackout blinds, the stylish Red Park Suite can accommodate between 35 and 82 guests.

MEETINGS AT MANOR HOUSE

Make the right impression, and host your private event in one of Manor House's atmospheric and intimate rooms.

THE CARETAKERS

A beautiful vaulted room, with parquet floors, The Caretakers is the Manor House's original cellar. Suitable for private meetings of up to 70, this atmospheric room enjoys natural daylight, with doors that open onto a private terrace overlooking the River Nore and Ballylinch Stud. Hosting up to 70 delegates, The Caretakers suite can also be used for private dining of up to 60 guests from our Michelin-starred Lady Helen restaurant.

THE PARLOUR

A magnificent room in the Manor House, The Parlour is part of the Michelin-starred Lady Helen Restaurant. Intimate and lavish, it can be reserved for private dining celebrations and team events of up to 36 guests. A portrait of Lady Helen hangs on the wall, overseeing your event and lending a wonderful sense of history. Working with you, our Head Chef will create a bespoke menu that's just right for your event. Overlooking the River Nore and lush Ballylinch Stud, this impressive room enjoys superb views, high ceilings, natural light and a real sense of Mount Juliet magic.

1757

The recently refurbished, 1757 bar is located in the original cellar of Manor House. Intimate and relaxed, with wonderful vaulted ceilings, 1757 enjoys a private terrace overlooking the River Nore and Ballylinch Stud. 1757 is available for private hire and can accommodate up to 80 people.

THE CINEMA

The Cinema is a new addition to Manor House. The 12-seater cinema was inspired by the glamour of the golden age of cinema. Our cinema is available for private screenings, impressive presentations, or board meetings. Enjoy fresh popcorn, a classic cocktail, and your favourite film.
